Delivery & Assessment Quality CVEP Certified Vocational Education Professional

The ITECA College of Vocational Education Professionals offers recognition for trainers and assessors who demonstrate a commitment to quality by admitting them as a Certified Vocational Education Professional (CVEP). This credential serves as an important career milestone, acknowledging your commitment to quality training and their industry experience.

For trainers and assessors, the CVEP credential distinguishes them from their peers. It validates their view of working in the skills training system not just as a job, but as a critical profession dedicated to the tasks of workforce skilling and upskilling. Not everyone takes this step, which is why those with the CVEP credential are among the nation's leading professionals.

CVEP Confirms Your Commitment To Quality Training & Assessment

- Recognition by peers as a commitment to the quality delivery of skills training.
- Elevate your professional standing with your CVEP post nominal.
- Showcase your status with a certificate, lapel pin and digital credential
- Exclusive invitations to networking across the country.

The college application process for professional accreditation is an independent and robust validation of your qualifications, industry experience, and reputation. It is a comprehensive assessment that reflects how your peers view your capabilities and commitment to quality.

CVEP College Admission Criteria Summary

- Tertiary qualifications in skills training that align with the RTO Standards.
- Vocational qualifications at least to the level that you deliver and assess.
- A working with minors and / or vulnerable persons check (as appropriate).
- Letters of endorsement from two senior supervisors and / or CEMs.

Seeking admission to the college enhances your credibility, showcases your expertise, and demonstrates a commitment to maintaining high professional standards. It opens doors to better career opportunities, increases your earning potential, and fosters professional growth.

Admission to the ITECA College of Vocational Education Professionals is a career milestone to aspire to. It provides a clear and very public validation of your commitment to the quality delivery of skills training programs that sets you apart from your peers.

“ The CVEP credential is an important step in your career journey, one that sets you apart from other trainers and assessors in the skills training sector. ”

The Independent Tertiary Education Council Australia (ITECA) is the peak body representing independent skills training, higher education, and international education providers in addition to leading key industry associations with a commitment to quality tertiary education.

With the great backing of members, ITECA champions policy reforms that build commercially sustainable institutions known for quality and put students at the heart of the skills training and higher education systems.

Independent RTOs cater to more than 89% of the 4.5 million students in skills training, and independent providers support around 10% of the 1.6 million students in a higher education awards program.

ITECA's members are united, informed and influential. The they set our agenda, fund our activities, and directly benefit from the results.
